Re: 2023IN03897-Baudin_Response to the final decision of September 6, 2024

Mrs Guzman,

We wish to state our reasons for why we disagree with your decision of September 6, 2024. We are sorry for the delay in our response to your final decision but we experienced the death of a family member on September 8, 2024 and then experienced a medical emergency of another family member shortly thereafter.

We informed you that the Baudin response to our ARDC complaint was deliberately crafted to misrepresent at least 7 features of their representation of Dulberg to the ARDC and to the Illinois Supreme Court.

Our reply was completely ignored by the ARDC. The ARDC final response then misrepresented the same 7 features in their final response to Dulberg.

The following videos explains in detail how this is done:

Illinois response to being informed of attorney network 37- Table of all attorney and ARDC responses.mp4

Illinois response to being informed of attorney network 38- Extreme features of the Table of all attorney and ARDC responses.mp4

Illinois response to being informed of attorney network 40- How an alternative reality is established to defend the attorney network.mp4

Illinois response to being informed of attorney network 41- Underlying patterns in all attorney and ARDC responses to date.mp4

From the patterns shown in the Table we are reluctantly forced to conclude that the ARDC is intentionally avoiding a long list of features that were reported to the ARDC. These actions by the ARDC help create an atmosphere of virtual impunity for these attorneys to do whatever they want to Dulberg and face no consequences for their actions.

It is difficult for us to believe that these misrepresentations are accidents since the ARDC was clearly informed in detail about each of these features that were collectively ignored in their final responses issued to date. The patterns in the Table and in the videos show how this is done.

In addition to the videos linked above, here is a record of how the ARDC responded to the ARDC complaints submitted by Dulberg to date:
