Dear Mr Talarico,

Yesterday you had me looking up if Dulberg signed the McGuire's settlement check that Popovich cashed and deposited?

The settlement check was issued on 2/10/2014 and has a handwritten note that it was deposited to trust on 6/30/2014 (Dulberg 000300, Dulberg 003218, Dulberg 006298)

I could find no proof anywhere that Dulberg signed the McGuire settlement check

My question is; If the attorney and law firm are acting as the agent for the client do they need the client's signature on the settlement check if it is deposited in a trust account, liens and costs paid from that trust account?

My second question is; who gets the interest on the deposited settlement?

Paul
