This is how Dulberg first received the Saul Ferris Declination letter:

The Declination letter was sent via the US Post Office mail from Ferris to Popovich by mistake around March 4th, 2015. This package contained the Declination letter, 4 depositions and all correspondence Mast/Popovich mailed to Dulberg via the US Post Office dated before February 26, 2015.
(See Saul Ferris Deposition)

The Declination letter stayed in Popovich office until on or about March 23, 2015 at which time Attorney Brad Balke received a partial, mixed up case file from Mast/Popovich believed to contain the now altered (forged) Saul Ferris Declination letter. This partial, mixed up case file Dulberg later names the "Mixed Brown Box File"
(See Dulberg 002821 - Dulberg 002822)

On May 7, 2015 Saul Ferris' office contacts Dulberg and informs Dulberg they now have back the mail mistakenly sent to Mast/Popovich.

On May 8, 2015 Dulberg goes to Saul Ferris' office, picks up the mistakenly mailed package and emails Attorney Brad Balke and gives a description of it's contents. The Saul Ferris Declination letter is not in the package.
(See Dulberg 002651 and Dulberg 002848 - Dulberg 002849)

On Jul 16, 2015 Dulberg picked up the "Mixed Brown Box File" from Bulke after firing Bulke. This is the first time the letter arrived at Dulberg's house.
(See Dulberg 002883 - Dulberg 002884)

Sometime between July 16, 2015 and August, 17 2015 Dulberg sorts out the 'Mixed Brown Box File' and separated the letter from other case documents found in the "Mixed Brown Box File" and put it in a separate pile.
(See Dulberg 002885, Dulberg 002888, Dulberg 002889, several other emails can be cited here but will require more time to find)

2015-08-17 On August 17, 2015 Scott Dulberg signs for the 2nd Dulberg case file at Popovich's office. This becomes known as the "Brown Jacket File" and is used from this point forward in the case against Gagnon.
(POP 000804)

In December of 2016 Dulberg gave the separate pile made from sorting the "Mixed Brown Box File" to Attorney Gooch who scanned it in as part of Dulberg's documents.
