

T Kost <tkost999@gmail.com>

Re: Your new discovery on how to correctly deal with the fraud

1 message

Paul Dulberg <Paul_Dulberg@comcast.net>
To: Tom Kost <tkost999@gmail.com>

Sat, Sep 2, 2023 at 9:31 AM

Tom,

Notice I am not including Alphonse in this email as I don't think he needs to hear this petty bullshit.

When you call me and attack me rather than talk about the case I feel as if I need to go through your rant of at least 20 minutes where you abuse me before you talk about the law or the case.

Of coarse I hang up. No one would be willing to be put through that.

Please stop calling and use only email for discussions.

It appears that for now in emails you can refrain from personal attacks, something you are unable to do over the phone.

I haven't read the emails you sent yesterday and now I probably won't today because of your personal attacks on the phone this morning.

Perhaps tomorrow I can read them before being attacked and jaded by you.

Its the 2nd day destroyed and its sad because I believe you are on something truly actionable that I should know more about and shouldn't be waisting days away because of the personal attacks.

I don't believe anyone can take the personal attacks you dish out, again its sad that you can't help without making me take your abuse first.

> On Sep 1, 2023, at 9:44 AM, Paul Dulberg <Paul_Dulberg@comcast.net> wrote:

>

> Per our phone conversation, you know Mr Talarico has an immediate issue he is dealing with today or we are out another $500 for the clerks file.

>

> Please refrain from emailing him before the immediate fire is put out. He did ask not to be bothered till he gets the motion filed with the appellate court.

>

> On another note, You're on a mission, an important mission but a mission none the less.

>

> Like all those on a mission your drive is blinding you from the common courtesy of not degrading those already on your side.

>

> I would like to hear what it is that you learned in a civilized manner without all of the degrading egotistical bullshit you throw out before you share what it is you realized.

>

> Telling people they are all wrong, stupid, etc... before simply stating what it is you learned and allowing your audience to learn it as well isn't going to further your cause, it simply makes your audience turn you off before they hear your important message.

>

> I agree, put it in email, send it to me. After the fire is put out today (motion filed) we can share it with Talarico.

>

>

>