To be honest, you took this case knowing it was my word vs. his.
Now you back out because the value of the case isn't worth your time?
You got some nerve and your earning the reputation of a shady lawyer

To believe David's version of events you must believe I was committing suicide.
Who in their right mind puts his arm into a chainsaw?

I figured you would cop out again...

Now I'm left wondering...
How hard is it to sue an atty?

And yes I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case...

The issue of my word vs David Gagnons... Did he cut me or did I cut myself?

Of coarse he cut me.

Next issue please?

Paul I no longer can represent you in the case. We obviously have differences of opinion as to the value of the case. I've been telling you over a year now the problems with the case and you just don't see them. You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear - it is not. My guess is that seven out of 10 times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I have been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to. There's only $100,000 in coverage. Allstate will never offer anything near the policy limits therefore there's no chance to settle the case. The only alternative is to take the case to trial and I am not interested in doing that. I will wait for you to find a new attorney. I can't assist you any further in this case. Just let me know.

Let's not be harsh, We have a couple of weeks till dr Kujawa's billing arrives.
I agree showing me the memo is a good idea it's just not the accuracy I expected.
I know I'm being confrontative about all of this but let's face it, my working days are over let alone a career I have been building since I was in high school. My dreams of family are over unless I have enough to provide and pay for the care of children and a roof.
Facebook, scrap booking, crafts, etc... A life of crap...
With ongoing pain and grip issues in my dominate arm/hand that are degenerative.

This is as total as it gets for us in the working class short of being paralyzed or dead.

I need someone who is on my side, top of their game and will see to it that I'm comfortable after all this is over.

What I feel is an attempt to settle for far less than this is remotely worth just to get me off the books.

I know you don't believe I'm hurt...

I'm not interested in belief, I think the facts speak volumes above belief

I question who's side you're on?

Your comments about believing David's deposition, etc...

Hans, I have no degrees but I was better at my career in printing and graphic design than anyone I ever worked with who did. If I need character references from past clients, employers, coworkers, teachers, etc... I have an army of people who know I'm one of the most genuine, honest, dedicated hard working persons who takes responsibility for my actions. David on the other hand isn't a stand up guy at all. He couldn't even take responsibility for his actions not to mention his attempts at collecting from this, which I believe constitutes insurance fraud.

Oh and I'm contacting the McHenry county states atty... I know too much time has passed since the threats but those threats were for a future time once all this was settled. If he attempts to collect or make good on his threats and if I end up back in the hospital I want everyone to know who to go get. I'm done playing nice with this guy and I can only hope I have an attorney who feels the same.

I have to ask since you think I don't understand, what is it you're trying to do?

Paul

Okay Paul I won't file the memo. Some would say that giving a client an opportunity to review a settlement memo is a good idea. In the past I have found clients appreciate reviewing these documents. I don't think you understand your case at all. To be honest. Just find an attorney who you like and we'll go that way. I was just trying to help. You obviously do not understand what I'm trying to do and that's fine. Let me know when you find one. Thanks

My case is "gross negligence" causing "untreatable, irreversible and debilitating harm"

Never had a lawyer who needed me to help write or correct anything before.
The SSDI lawyer pulled everything from the record and it was perfect.

Yes, I would like to reword much of it because I wouldn't want anything used in it twisted later if we do go to trial.

Yes, I understand that your firm won't back me but it doesn't mean I'm not going to take it to trial anyway. I need the wording to match exactly what I need should I go the distance.

I can honestly say the dollar amount you listed I would never agree to. It wouldn't even cover my wages for the years in physical therapy yet the rest of my life.

If I end up with a structured settlement where I have to chase this guy I believe we can always sell the settlement and cash out. Is that possible?

I'm not sure what you're saying. I tried to tell you over and over again the nature in which the memo is written isn't important. This is just a memo to introduce the judge to the case. If there are different ways you want to say things I'm happy to do that. It's going to serve it's purpose perfectly.
