Dear Paul,

Due to the concerns and recommendation around COVID 19, we have cancelled Hans Mast deposition next week. We do not yet have a date to reschedule.

We are considering a remote video deposition or other mechanism to take the deposition without everyone having to travel and be in the same room. That is still developing and we have not yet determined what the best options are or how it would work.

We will keep you posted as things progress.

Best Regards,

Julia Williams
