Joe,

I did check my notes and found nothing.

At the time of filing Paul's attorney was the Popovitch firm, Hans Mast was the attorney. That information was disclosed on Schedule B, as you know.

Because I couldn't find anything I emailed Paul and asked him to send me a copy of the complaint from any malpractice action he may have filed.

He responded today with a letter from Attorney Tom Gooch, Waukegan, to Mast, announcing that he, Gooch, intended to file a malpractice action within 7 days. The letter was dated December 16. I have received nothing further from Paul. I, minutes ago, forwarded that letter to you.

I will let you know if I receive anything further.

Thanks,

Happy New Year

Dave-

You were going to re-check your notes and advise/amend schedules re potential malpractice claim?

Can you let me know where you are at w/ the review etc.?

Thanks.
