PD

Hi Julia,

I am having trouble testing this zoom app . It may be because it's an iPad Pro and not a traditional iPhone

After several attempts I did manage to successfully sign up and sign in.
Because it's a zoom app and not a web browser I need to follow instruction 4b and call into the meeting and apparently I will need a unique participant id to join the meeting tomorrow

Do you provide me with that or do I need to contact the people in the email that sent the instructions

Thanks,
Paul

Dear Alan,

We have an issue. I need another participant id. Paul Dulberg, who is a party to the case, but is not the deponent and is not an attorney, needs to join the deposition. He is a witness entitled to sit in on the deposition. I need an id for him. I have cc'd him here as well.

Here is his email address: pdulberg@comcast.net

The total participants are as follows:

George Flynn, who received is ID
Hans Mast, the deponent, who is going to be in the same room with George Flynn and thus can log in with him.
Myself, Julia Williams, I have an ID
Paul Dulberg—needs a participant id.

Paul,

I just reached out to US Legal to get you a unique participant ID. We should hear from them shortly. I have tried on both my MacBook and my iPad—it worked fine. I think the likely culprit is lack of a unique ID. They should be sending you an email shortly.

Dear Alan,

We have an issue. I need another participant id. Paul Dulberg, who is a party to the case, but is not the deponent and is not an attorney, needs to join the deposition. He is a witness entitled to sit in on the deposition. I need an id for him. I have cc'd him here as well.

Here is his email address: pdulberg@comcast.net

The total participants are as follows:

George Flynn, who received is ID
Hans Mast, the deponent, who is going to be in the same room with George Flynn and thus can log in with him.
Myself, Julia Williams, I have an ID
Paul Dulberg—needs a participant id.

Hi Paul,

You should be able to test the system with the test link that was sent originally. Apparently there isn't any unique ID that was assigned with our email addresses.

Click the link that says "Test Center" in blue and then click on "Cameo Test." Join as a participant from your computer (iPad). It will then open zoom (make sure you have it downloaded), then "Join with Video". Once you join with video, six dial in numbers will appear as well as a Meeting ID and Participant ID. A screen shot is attached to show the phone numbers and id numbers. If you are using an iPad, you may have to scroll down to see the meeting id and participant Id. Join the audio portion by calling one of the phone numbers and providing your meeting ID and participant ID when prompted.

Once you have joined with audio and video, you should be all set.

If you still have trouble, on US Legal's website there are a couple of videos that may help you trouble shoot.

Dear Paul,

Below are the instructions for joining the deposition tomorrow. As you will not be questioning the witness, I recommend placing your microphone on mute during the deposition to avoid any noise that may disturb the deposition or confuse the court reporter.

Best Regards,
