Hi Hans,
Missed your call this morning. I'm here all day so feel free to call when you have time.

I'd suppose they want to know what I did for Mike Thomas.

Here is a brief summary,
I placed an ad to sell off some printing equipment and Mike Thomas came out to see if he wanted anything. This was the first time I met him.
In the process he mentioned that he was setting up a print shop in Richmond IL and asked if we (Mike McArtor and myself) could help. We did help him on and off over the next few months. Mike McArtor still helps out to this day and I do offer them advise when asked. My brother Scott Dulberg and Tom Kost also help Mike Thomas from time to time.

Mike Thomas wanted me to work for him on a regular basis. He offered many different proposals from direct employment, sub contracting, part time, etc... I had to decline after a few months of working with him on and off because I knew I couldn't do that type of work anymore on a regular basis. My arms and hands just can't be relied on.

Working with Mike Thomas taught me what I was and was not capable of doing. I did try to do many things for Mike Thomas that probably was things that I now know I shouldn't do anymore. I had to try, how would I know what i could do if I didn't.

It was a good test to see if I could go back to work on a regular basis. I did try many different types of work for Mike Thomas. It was everything from graphic design to doing little fix it up jobs around his building and even his house in Twin Lakes WI. I introduced my brothers, Scott & Tom, to Mike Thomas to recruit their help with what needed to be done because I wasn't able to do all the things myself anymore. All three, Tom, Mike McArtor and Scott filled in and acted as my hands to get things done.

I did receive compensation in the form of cash for my time. It wasn't much perhaps a few thousand in total but I'm not exactly sure what the exact total was. All the money went to my mother to help out with the bills she was paying on my behalf.

Other than that there isn't anything else I can think of that the defense counsel could hope to get from him.

Feel free to call or I could come in to discuss.

Thanks again,
Paul
