Honestly, what can dynamic hand therapy hope to get from me if they don't accept the insurance?

The only asset I have is a home that is probably underwater.

If all they can do is put a lien on it their better off taking what the insurance offers.

What legally can be done to me?

Paul

Hans,
Please Correct me if I am wrong here...

I just tried to compensate dynamic hand therapy and they denied payment because it is not the insurance carrier they prefer.

Do I need to get another kind of lawyer to represent me for this?
If so, what kind and who?

Paul

Whether the providers must submit to Medicare is an issue that must be decided between you two. If you have Medicare and they agree to treat you then they have to use Medicare. If they don't agree to use Medicare, there's really no way to compel them.

I can send a List of Providers to you. We don't need the Medicaid info unless they end up paying your bills.

Hans,

Any chance I can get a list of all the medical providers in my case so I can turn in my insurance info to each of them?

Also, I spoke with Rene at dynamic hand therapy and tried to give her my insurance info. she informed me that they only take Medicaid once and a while and probably won't in my case. She is having someone named Colleen call me tomorrow about it. Can medical providers actually deny my insurance after they already treated me knowing before hand that with my injury I was most likely going to end up disabled and on the states medical insurance?

Also, does it help to give you or your secretary a copy of the Medicaid card?

Thanks,
Paul

Hi Paul. You need to work with your providers to have them submit your bills to Medicaid. Some do not take Medicaid, while others probably prefer to try to get 100% of the bill paid from your personal injury case. So you have to explain to them the problems with the case and that you prefer to have the bill submitted to health insurance for payment.

Hans,

Since I was determined disabled by the SSDI judge during the time of treatment does that entitle me to Medicaid or Medicare? If so can't they help to pay the past due medical bills during that time?

Paul
