I hope not.

Sounded to me like they claimed to be hiding in their home all day when the neighbor saw them outside actively participating all day.

And Carol seeing me pick up a 200 lb. tiller alone with her own eyes when it was really someone she knew very well since the 1970's and sees once a week at least. This shows a desperate wanting to prove my claim of injury as false.

Those are a bit more than a bad recollection by anyone's standard.

I would feel better if we had in reserve and were ready to use all tools needed to win.

Paul there is no reason nor purpose for even discussing perjury. Just because someone has a different recollection doesn't mean the Maguires lied. Anyway it's not an issue that is anything to do with your suit.

But if the Maguires settle they still can be witnesses in the case

Hans,

If we take the McGuires off the suit can their deps still be used against us in any way?

John Choyinski stopped by yesterday and I asked him about the tiller. He openly admits being the one who loaded and unloaded the tiller. I recorded the conversation and my Mom was also present and on the tape. Both knew I was recording it in my home. I can send it to you if you need it.

Brian Beebe, McGuire's neighbor told me he saw the McGuires out working in the yard most of the day. He doesn't know their names but said he would recognize them if he saw them.

If their deps can or will be used in any way against us can or should we bring provable perjury charges and have them thrown out?

Thanks,
Paul

Hans,
Just got done reading those deps.

First off, Glad I'm not a lawyer.
Secondly, it's full of half truths and flat out lies.

Your right, going after those half truths are probably not worth anything in the long run but I do have to comment about the tiller because that one was hysterical.

Dave's best friend John Choyinski was with me when I delivered the tiller and he was the one unloading the trailer and I'm more than positive he would testify to that effect.
It's just amazing how families lie and exaggerate to protect each other but I do understand it, it is Caroline's son.

If there is anything in them we could use or need to be weary of let me know and we can go over it.

Thanks,
Paul
