Is it true, Your partner, the head of your firm, the same firm who you said wont back me in this case after they took it on, went to a small town high school in johnsburg il with both the defendant David Gagnon and his sister?

I'm starting to see a conflict of interest

Hans,

If I have to get a new attorney in the 11th hour of this, The damage done to my case far outweighs your lean.

If you sign off the lean I'll see to it your paid for your real costs.

It depends on what the recovery is. I can work it out with your new attorney. Technically it's one third of the recovery but obviously that's not going to work because your attorney needs to be paid for something too. The whole calculation is done at the end of the case. There's simply no way to do it until the case is settled and we know what the amount is.

That was not my dismissal of you or your firm yet.
We need to settle up the costs and dissolve our relationship.
Please explain all costs you feel entitled to.
Thank you

Hans,
I'm just a laymen but my eyes are opening, As you should very well know, I can't have a new attorney until we are dissolved. So, your suggestions to me for over a year to get a new attorney is in error, one of many to my dismay. I no longer feel you or your firm are seeing to my best interests and most likely haven't been since I signed on. It's a shame because you come across to me as a Jon Stewart type and I honestly thought you would be good.

Costs on this case, What costs?
You mean the filing fees and copy fees Or are you pursuing something more?

Paul as I said before I cannot sign and release our lien before the case is resolved. That doesn't make any sense. But if you're new attorney is willing to reimburse us for our costs I'm sure we can work out something at the appropriate time.
