Hi Paul,

Tom asked me to obtain the filing fees from you (which I mentioned in my earlier email) prior to filing suit. I am not certain if he remembered to ask you for these when you were in last night, and I was gone before your appointment ended. These costs for the filing & service fees are mentioned in your retainer agreement, paragraph 3, as expenses the client must pay in addition to the attorney's retainer fee. My instruction from Tom yesterday was that we cannot file the suit until we have these fees from you.

The breakdown is as follows:

McHenry County Court Filing Fee: $ 464.50 (252.00 Court Fees, $212.50 Jury of 12 Demanded)

Service fees $ 130.00 (two separate defendants, $65 each)

Total needed: $594.50

We look forward to receiving your check as soon as possible. If sending a check you may make this payable to: The Gooch Firm and note Filing & Service Fees in the memo section. If you pay by credit card we can accept a payment over the phone.

Thank you and happy holidays,

Hi Margret,

I can stop in today with a check for the filing fee.

Will you be there till 5pm today or are you closing earlier due to the holiday?

On another note;

Tom asked me to read over the complaint and email you with any corrections or concerns. the following items are what I have found at first glance.

On page 2, 6th item it says; "having been called by his neighbors Caroline McGuire and William McGuire..."

To be correct it could simply read "having been asked" rather than "having been called"

Explanation: Their son David Gagnon called me on the phone the day before and asked if I

To be correct it could simply read "having been asked" rather than "having been called"

Explanation: Their son David Gagnon called me on the phone the day before and asked if I wanted the wood from a tree he was cutting down at his (moms) Caroline and William McGuire's home and I told David Gagnon I would stop by the next day to see what he had. Caroline McGuire asked me to help her son David once I was already there because her husband was tired and went into the house and David Gagnon was complaining to her that he needed help. That's when Caroline McGuire asked me to help.

Page 2, 6th item it says "Dulberg was an adjoining property owner."

This is False, I live 2 roads over from the McGuire's property and cannot even see their property from my property.

That's about it at first glance. I will email more if I find anything else.

Thanks,

Paul
