PD

Hi Julia,
Yes, I recognize those disks.
One disk is 2 xrays from the Hospital the day of the injury and the other is an MRI done at a later date.

It's surprising Gooch couldn't open them. They were provided by the Hospital and the MRI place.
If I remember correctly, Both come with their own reader right on the same disk with instructions on how to view the Images and save them as JPEG's, etc..

Those images are also included in emails between Hans Mast and myself. Possibly sent to others as well, possibly Baudins.
I'm trying to remember if Hans Mast even had them printed out for the depositions.
I also have those images somewhere in my backed up files off my computer.

I should have those disks somewhere around here, I may have put them with the rest of my old cd/dvd's.

It's early in the Morning here, My coffee hasn't kicked in just yet, I need a little time to look for them.
Worse case scenario, If they were lost somewhere between Gooch's office and Myself, I can pay for new copies again.

I will let you know if I have them or need to get new copies from the Medical providers as soon as I can, Hopefully by the end of the day today or early tomorrow.

Thanks,
Paul

Dear Paul,

One other item. When we obtained the file from Mr. Gooch, he referenced two disks—pictures of which are attached. Mr. Gooch could not open them with his software and stated he returned them to you. I do not see them in the box you provided to us. Do you have those disks? Can you provide us a copy?

Best Regards,

Dear Paul,

Attached is the last court order. It is a bit difficult to read. We have until Dec 6 to file an amended complaint. Defendants are to respond by January 11, 2019. The next statue is February 25, 2019 at 9:00 am.

I was able to obtain the file from the Gooch Firm without a release.

We will be sending an amended pleading likely Friday for your review.

Hi Julia,
Hope you had a happy Thanksgiving weekend.
I haven't received either the release for the Gooch files that needed to be signed or the copy of the last court order.
Thanks,
Paul
