Dear Paul,

Our office will be attending the hearing on Monday by telephone. You need not attend, but if you wish too, you are welcome to appear in person.

Mr. Flynn will likely be there. I strongly recommend that you do not talk to him without us present. For ethical reasons, he cannot speak with you without our consent. I believe you are already aware of all of this, but just a friendly reminder.

Also, here is the response to the redactions, but I am going to review them again just to be sure that it does look like file splits:
Julia:

I have confirmed that the blank pages in Popovich's discovery are photocopies of file dividers. The blank pages were contained in the disc that was sent to me at my prior firm. We included them in the production only because they were included in the documents transmitted to my office. There have been no redactions made by the clients or by our office, besides the redaction of deductible and premium information from the insurance policy declarations page.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Best regards,

George Flynn
