Hi Julia,

Thank you for kindly informing George Flynn that he will have to wait for my new counsel to join the case.

May I ask,

What grounds does George Flynn have to dig into my confidential communications with counsel that worked on this case and not the underlying case?

If this sort of invasion was allowed couldn't George Flynn just go directly to Gooch for the communications?

Thanks again,
Paul

Dear Paul,

Please see the below chain of emails. George Flynn is seeking the answers to discovery. I let him know that you were seeking alternative counsel and would not be answering until you had counsel.

He may insist, but the court will likely address it on the 10th.

Best regards,

Julia Williams

Dear George,

I will certainly pass this along to our client.

Unfortunately, because we are withdrawing, we are not comfortable answering discovery when another counsel may be appearing. Mr. Dulberg is seeking new counsel and would like to have his new counsel answer. I expect that we will be withdrawing on September 10, 2020. The court will grant Mr. Dulberg 21 days to find alternative counsel. Based upon this, it is unlikely that any answers to supplemental discovery will be prepared prior to the end of September.

Thank you again for your time and courtesy in this case. It has been nice to work with you as well.

Best regards,

I write pursuant to rule 201(k) and rule 219(c). Mr. Dulberg is late in responding to discovery pursuant the the extension you requested, and to which I agreed.

It is finally time for Mr. Dulberg to properly answer discovery in conformity to his allegations, and relative to the matters which he has placed at issue.

Once the Gooch discovery is produced, I would like to immediately depose Dulberg and Gooch. Please pass this along to your client.

You and your firm have been nothing but professional and it was a pleasure working with you.

Best regards,

George Flynn

This correspondence is being forwarded pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 201(k).

I just received your firm's motion to withdraw. If you could please pass along to Mr. Dulberg or his new counsel, that we must insist on the outstanding written discovery being answered by August 27, 2020 per our agreement below, it would be appreciated.

I think we have been very patient with Mr. Dulberg in responding to discovery which has been directed at his assertion of the discovery rule in this case, where he is attempting to overcome a statute of limitations defense (issues which are evident from the face of the pleadings and the applicable statutes involved).

The supplemental discovery we served merely clarified and more specifically identified communications and documents which were the subject of prior discovery requests, and some of which were identified at Mr. Dulberg's discovery deposition taken on February 19, 2020.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss this matter.

Very truly yours,
