Hans,
Do you remember the email I sent with all the drama when I met with David?
Mike was there, seen and heard everything. Mike will tell you what he heard and watched.
If you don't have the drama letter I can try and find it and resend it.
Paul

Hi Hans,

Mike McArtor is at work today and will be working everyday this week.
His cell phone is (815) 347-8014.
Mike is willing to do a deposition but needs to schedule it around work.

Thanks again,
Paul

Thanks Paul...

Every case has different versions of the same accident. Unfortunately, when there are no witnesses, it's hard to know how the jury will decide a case. David's description of the accident made sense to him and he described it in a way that "could have" occurred even though different from your description. I think the only way to prove him wrong is to show him to be incredible in other ways...for instance his assertion that you told him "you could be rich" in front of your room mate. If your room mate will cooperate and say that David is wrong - that you did not say this, this could be a very good way to show him to be wrong. Would your room mate agree to a deposition in the case? if so, have him call me...thanks Paul....

Subject: Reply to David's Deposition

Hans,

In response to your letter about Gagnon's deposition:

In the first place, why would I hold up the very end of a branch with my damaged left arm? And if I did do it as Dave Gagnon said, I would have had my back to him. What he said makes no sense.

In the second place, if you have ever been cut by a chain saw, the last thing on anyone's mind would be making a profit. I was in so much pain that I could not have talked seriously about anything other than stopping the bleeding and getting to a hospital fast.

David did not come into the hospital with me. He dropped me at the door and was parking the car. He was brought into the ER and questioned by the staff that was there. You can check with whoever was working the ER that day. It's not really my word against David's but David's word against those that were working in the ER.

There is one witness as to David talking about making money off of this accident. Mike Mcartor heard David say this to me in David's garage the day I went up to David's house to get his home owner's insurance policy number per your request.

Mike Mcartor is a friend that grew up with David and myself and is currently living at my residence.

Will sign and drop off the medical release forms you requested.

Thanks,
Paul
