Subject: Re: Memo

Let's not be harsh, We have a couple of weeks till dr Kujawa's billing arrives.
I agree showing me the memo is a good idea it's just not the accuracy I expected.
I know I'm being confrontative about all of this but let's face it, my working days are over let alone a career I have been building since I was in high school. My dreams of family are over unless I have enough to provide and pay for the care of children and a roof.

Facebook, scrap booking, crafts, etc... A life of crap...

With ongoing pain and grip issues in my dominate arm/hand that are degenerative.

This is as total as it gets for us in the working class short of being paralyzed or dead.

I need someone who is on my side, top of their game and will see to it that I'm comfortable after all this is over.

What I feel is an attempt to settle for far less than this is remotely worth just to get me off the books.

I know you don't believe I'm hurt...

I'm not interested in belief, I think the facts speak volumes above belief

I question who's side your on?

Your comments about believing David's deposition, etc...

Hans, I have no degrees but I was better at my career in printing and graphic design than anyone I ever worked with who did. If I need character references from past clients, employers, coworkers, teachers, etc... I have an army of people who know I'm one of the most genuine, honest, dedicated hard working persons who takes responsibility for my actions. David on the other hand isn't a stand up guy at all. He couldn't even take responsibility for his actions not to mention his attempts at collecting from this, which I believe constitutes insurance fraud.

Oh and I'm contacting the McHenry county states atty... I know too much time has passed since the threats but those threats were for a future time once all this was settled. If he attempts to collect or make good on his threats and if I end up back in the hospital I want everyone to know who to go get. I'm done playing nice with this guy and I can only hope I have an attorney who feels the same.

I have to ask since you think I don't understand, what is it your trying to do?

Paul

Okay Paul I won't file the memo. Some would say that giving a client an opportunity to review a settlement memo is a good idea. In the past I have found clients appreciate reviewing these documents. I don't think you understand your case at all. To be honest. Just find an attorney who you like and we'll go that way. I was just trying to help. You obviously do not understand what I'm trying to do and that's fine. Let me know when you find one. Thanks

Never had a lawyer who needed me to help write or correct anything before.

The SSDI lawyer pulled everything from the record and it was perfect.

Yes, I would like to reword much of it because I wouldn't want anything used in it twisted later if we do go to trial.

Yes, I understand that your firm won't back me but it doesn't mean I'm not going to take it to trial anyway. I need the wording to match exactly what I need should I go the distance.

I can honestly say the dollar amount you listed I would never agree to. It wouldn't even cover my wages for the years in physical therapy yet the rest of my life.

If I end up with a structured settlement where I have to chase this guy I believe we can always sell the settlement and cash out. Is that possible?

Hans,

Would giving David Gagnon and his insurance Allstate the chance to do an independent medical examination of my impaired arm help any?

This could diffuse any idea that I'm exaggerating or that they would even want to try to claim that it's not as bad as I make it out to be.

Who knows, perhaps the 7th dr to evaluate the injury knows something that the others didn't and they could actually improve my condition

I have to wonder...

Is it the fact that David Gagnon doesn't have a bigger insurance policy?

Or perhaps that I didn't lose my arm?

What is it that isn't good enough for your firm that they would actually drop a client they chose to represent?

I'm betting in the end it's all about the amount of money your firm can make off of my injuries because I've done nothing to exaggerate or hide anything.

Have a merry Xmas, now I'm late to see a dr and my arm muscles are in spasm from trying to type this wasted email as fast as I can.

Paul

On another note,

David Gagnon already received more than any lawsuit will bring me...

If this was someone I didn't know...

I'd find out how to put the guy in prison for as many years as I could.

No one should be allowed to use a chainsaw like he did and get away with it!

The gift I gave David by providing him with the benefit of the doubt has turned out priceless for him...

What I received is a life sentence even if I win some lawsuit...

What can I do with the money, pay someone else to do the things I would have been able to do myself if this didn't happen?

What part of life makes that appealing?

And how long will that last?

I went from being a doer with some potential to being a watcher and beggar. There is nothing that can change that...

Neither David nor his insurance policy can fix any of this.

Your position of fear in this case is appalling.

Oh and one more thing...

Those dr's, vocational experts and federal judge were all in agreement that I was disabled and already gave me a partially favorable judgement.

I believe the only outstanding question was whether the ongoing treatment of injections was going to make it better or not?

Since then, The injections only made me weaker in a different part of the arm for a period and had no positive effect and now I just have to wait and see.

Ending up on disability and having to take meds 3x a day is not a choice or outcome I wanted. Nor did I want to have to fend off an incoming chainsaw or go through a couple of surgeries. I wouldn't wish this on anyone

All I wanted was to heal enough to go back to work. I really did try.

I used to make more money in a few months then I'm going to make all year now. That's no exaggeration.

Oh and that stupid statement I heard you say in the past that part of my injuries were too distal from the cut...

I dare you to Try fending off a chainsaw that's violently cutting into you unexpectedly and survive without any other issue other than where the chainsaw cut you.

And if during that event you should twist an ankle, hit your head, another part of the body or anything else from trying to save yourself... Remember it's too distal from the wound so you lose...

That is absolutely retarded to think that my elbow was too distal from the cut... Think about what it takes to fend off an aggressive chainsaw cutting into you and then tell me if any other smaller, at first unnoticed injury is too distal to be real?

I'm tired of this crap

Talk with you after Monday,
Paul

Oops, hit send accidentally. . Another issue from a shaky muscle in my forearm...

Hans,

What and where does "you weren't hurt that bad" mean or come from?

It was a deep laceration from a chainsaw and I'm only hurt as bad as it is and that's it.
I obviously have long term issues with/from the injury so no exaggeration is needed on my part.

Whether or not it's considered disabling is the only real question and that is being decided for us at the federal level with other dr's and vocational experts that I didn't pick.

All that I hope for is that I'm treated by those like you as you would want to be treated.

Thanks for the honesty and I will get back with you after Monday.

But it will take some time and expense to take the case to trial. If the jury believes your specialist, the damages could be good for you. Hans,

At first my goal was to get my medical paid for...
That's changed because it's turned out worse than I thought...
Now it's simply to get as much as we can and move on with my life...

What are your goals in this case?

I just found out from John Choyinski that David Gagnon took apart the mustang. It's down to the frame. John said that David did that to make sure he doesn't lose it and won't put it back together till the mess he caused with me is finished.

Your risk...

I just had to file bankruptcy because of that incident 3-1/2 years ago. I could no longer make all the payments to my creditors. I also have a disability suit because of it.

I don't care about a settlement unless it's enough to drag David Gagnon through bankruptcy for his idiotic use of a chainsaw and made up story under oath. Gagnon sure showed his true colors when he was deposed, he just isn't a standup guy at all.

Either way it goes, (settlement or trial) I'm not going to make anything near what I've already lost or what my future losses are going to be so it just doesn't matter.

The only thing that would be remotely satisfying is knowing that David Gagnon had to go through a settlement or trial and lose, then find himself actually having to face bankruptcy.

I can only hope he has enough assets that it actually hurts.

Hi Hans,

Just got a call from associated neurology because of the bankruptcy notice they received.

Tried to explain that the loans on the lawsuit expired after 3 years and I really don't have any choice.

They said they never heard of such a thing and are looking into the loan issue and will get back to me.

On another note, Baudin's firm must not be interested because they never called me.

Do I need to find a new firm or what?

Thanks,

Paul

Hi Hans,

I heard from Meredith (my lawyer for SSDI) about when I should expect a response from SSDI. Apparently the SSDI courts are understaffed and it may take up to a year or a little longer from the date the appeal was filed.

I'm unsure of the exact date it was filed but the last hearing was in April or May and I believe the appeal was filed just after that so it may be a while before I hear anything and then it all depends if it's dismissed and I actually have to sue or its remanded back to the lower court for reconsideration.

Either route it's going to be many months before I know anything more.

At my last visit with Dr. Kujawa she said she is filing my injury as permanent but I'm not sure if that is admissible to the appeal at this point. Meredith is working on that.

On another note, I called Randal Baudin's office again and am waiting to hear back again.

Thanks for everything,
Paul

Hi Hans,

Coleen at dynamic hand therapy called with a proposal.

She is going to write up an agreement.

It will be $25.00 per month till the SSDI judgement is finished.

After that it will increase to $100 per month if the SSDI judgement is favorable or stay at $25 per month if it isn't.

Payments end once your case against David Gagnon is settled and they receive their share of the settlement.

This keeps it out of collections.

Does this sound fair?

Hans,

I just tried to compensate dynamic hand therapy and they denied payment because it is not the insurance carrier they prefer.

Do I need to get another kind of lawyer to represent me for this?

If so, what kind and who?

Hans,

Any chance I can get a list of all the medical providers in my case so I can turn in my insurance info to each of them?

Also, I spoke with Rene at dynamic hand therapy and tried to give her my insurance info. she informed me that they only take Medicaid once and a while and probably won't in my case. She is having someone named Colleen call me tomorrow about it.

Can medical providers actually deny my insurance after they already treated me knowing before hand that with my injury I was most likely going to end up disabled and on the states medical insurance?

Also, does it help to give you or your secretary a copy of the Medicaid card?

Thanks,

Paul

Since I was determined disabled by the SSDI judge during the time of treatment does that entitle me to Medicaid or Medicare?

If so can't they help to pay the past due medical bills during that time?

Last week when Coleen from dynamic hand called to inform me that the lean against the suit expired, I offered to make payments and that was also refused.

So technically this is the second time they refused compensation.

Honestly, what can dynamic hand therapy hope to get from me if they don't accept the insurance?

The only asset I have is a home that is probably underwater.

If all they can do is put a lean on it their better off taking what the insurance offers.

What legally can be done to me?

Hi Paul. You need to work with your providers to have them submit your bills to Medicaid. Some do not take Medicaid, while others probably prefer to try to get 100% of the bill paid from your personal injury case. So you have to explain to them the problems with the case and that you prefer to have the bill submitted to health insurance for payment.

Hans,
Since I was determined disabled by the SSDI judge during the time of treatment does that entitle me to Medicaid or Medicare?
If so can't they help to pay the past due medical bills during that time?

Hi Meredith,

Curious if I am entitled to Medicare or Medicaid during the period the judge determined I was disabled?
If so where do I need to go to get help with the medical bills during that period?
Thanks so much,

One last evil thought while I'm losing everything.

Do me a favor Hans,

Tell Allstate I'd settle for a mere comfy vp position in their firm with a meager 75,000 dollar a year salary that always increases with inflation contracted over a 20 year period with me doing nothing but finding ways to increase David Gagnons premiums forever and see how they reply.

This way there is no fight over whether their client neglected to tell me what the hell he was going to do with that chainsaw.

Videotape their response and send it to me.

Hans,

Last evening I was in the hospital with the most severe migraine I've ever had.

This morning I filed for bankruptcy with David Stretch.

This afternoon I spent with my regular physician Dr Zaide doing a follow up from yesterday.

And right now, I have to email you. All when I still have a slight residual headache and should be in bed.

At first I thought the migraine was brought on by the medications I'm taking but it wasn't, it was brought on after our discussions. Now I can't prove that but it seems pretty obvious to me. Joke no pun intended there!

That migraine made me realize I need the stress of this situation over with. All the stress on top of losing everything is too much and I'd rather live than die from it all before my body does something worse.

My body is not reacting well and the migraines are getting more frequent and worse. Have you ever vomited at the same time as defecating while being in some of the most excruciating pain in your life?

If not, neither did I till the chainsaw went through my arm. That's when the migraines became more frequent, stronger and faster coming on. And now for the first time during the day.

Ever since I awoke this morning, all I can I think is the stress of it all is killing me more and more as the reality sets in and I just can't afford to care about it anymore.

My health means more than some lawsuits and the lure of money.

All because some idiot named David Gagnon forgot to tell me to move out of the way and he can't seem to admit it.

Yes, after reading his deposition and hearing it was my fault I was pissed.

In my anger I suspected all sorts of things. Including it being intentional especially after my discussions at his home only trying to get his homeowners policy number and him wanting money and threatening me for it.

Yes, my arm and elbow were hurt from his stupidity irregardless if some dr can link the two together or not.

Yes, there will be ongoing medical as a result of all this because it still hurts and doesn't work right.

Yes, I am now disabled irregardless of what SSDI appeal goes because of this.

Yes, I understand I'm screwed because of a system that allows one person to hurt another and even after a trial and judgement entered all they have to do is go file for bankruptcy in the same courthouse on the same day.

Yes, it just took me almost an hour just to type this.

Yes, yes, yes...

but none of it matters anymore!

Bottom line Hans... Do the best you can with what you got, I've got nothing more to lose or give. I need it all to just go away.

First, I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to help prove David cut me with a chainsaw. I was but a lowly printer/graphic designer my whole life and never asked for anyone's sympathy till now.

Secondly, I'm sorry I must live among a bunch of potential jurors that you don't trust to just do the right thing.

Thirdly, I'm most sorry for agreeing to lend David Gagnon a hand when he needed some help, I had no idea he was going to try and lop it off.

Fourth, I'm sorry you don't feel good about pushing for a trial. I wish whatever mysterious evidence you seek would be shared with me because without a video camera I can only say what I've seen from direct experience. And I guess in this case "me" the victim isn't credible enough but the one wielding a chainsaw that hurt me is.

A few questions from a layman,

How much could a trial actually cost?

What,

$50,000

$150,000

Does it even cost as much as a car?

What number?

How much would you hope to get for us in a settlement?

How much could be expected if the trial does proceed and we have a favorable outcome?

Hans, if your heart is not in this I'm sorry

Hi Hans,

I spoke with dr. Kujawa's assistant Elsie by phone on Friday. I updated her on how the increased dosages of Neurontin/Gabapentin are having an effect on the burning spasms in my arm. I told her that each week that I increased the dose I was able to get a 75-80% reduction in the amount of burning spasms for approximately 2-1/2 to 3 days tops before I adjusted to the new dosage and the beneficial effects wore off. Unfortunately, I also sleep for 2-1/2 to 3 days each time the dosage is increased.

I am now at the recommended level of 1800mg a day and don't have anymore dosage increases scheduled and it's as if I'm not getting any relief again. She said dr. Kujawa wants to keep me at that dosage until our next office visit.

As far as the Botox injections go, I told her this time it definitely had an effect. My hand is now weaker and I can't even my full coffee cup up straight. She said that's what it's supposed to do and that as it wears off the spasms may get stronger and that we will do another round of injections at the 3 month office visit. She also said that I shouldn't be grabbing anything more than a couple of pounds.

Subject: Bankruptcy ?

Hi Hans,

I spoke with David Stretch, a bankruptcy lawyer, about possibly going the route of Bankruptcy. He said if I have a pending a suit that it is considered a possible asset and may allow the court to hold off any bankruptcy judgement pending the outcome and that I would only be able to exempt 15,000 before the creditors get their share.

He also said if all I default on is credit cards but keep up on the mortgage and basic needs all that can happen is a judgement will be issued against me and it goes on my credit report and it can be cleared later by filing.

I know my personal financial issues are not your problem but I am to a point for the first time ever that I am stopping all payments to my credit cards and focusing on the house, food and utilities. Or rather I should say my Mom is thanks to the chainsaw.

Does filing bankruptcy make any difference on your end and would it complicate anything?

In your opinion what would be the better route, file bankruptcy now or just default on the credit cards and deal with it later?

I added the contact info for David Stretch below

Thanks,
Paul

Hi Hans and Meredith,

I had an appointment with Dr. Kujawa yesterday.
She said the Botox injections will not solve the spastic pains you saw marked on my arm in the video I sent you but it should help with opening and closing my hand so I did another round of injections.

Of coarse I asked, am I stuck with those pains the rest of my life, it's been almost 3 years?

She replied, most likely but that's what the Neurontin/Gabapentin are for and it should help curb some of those pains.

She prescribed Neurontin/Gabapentin for the pains and asked that I report any changes to her and to see her again in another 3 months.

My next appointment is set for August 14th.

Thanks again,
Paul

Hans,

I know I said to just get the best deal you can but what I forgot to ask was if you or your firm had anyone else in mind that would take on my case with the appropriate resources and attention it needs to get a result worth going further.

I don't mind sharing or switching firms if it came with your blessing.

On another note, I have another appointment with Dr. Kujawa on May 8th. Dr. Kujawa's assistant, Elsie, asked me to keep a log on the issues with the forearm. Below is one of the video logs I'm trying to keep for them so they can see the patterns of the burns and muscle cramps so they can better place the injections.

Thanks,

Paul

My case is "gross negligence" causing "untreatable, irreversible and debilitating harm"

Never had a lawyer who needed me to help write or correct anything before.
The SSDI lawyer pulled everything from the record and it was perfect.

Yes, I would like to reword much of it because I wouldn't want anything used in it twisted later if we do go to trial.

Yes, I understand that your firm won't back me but it doesn't mean I'm not going to take it to trial anyway. I need the wording to match exactly what I need should I go the distance.

I can honestly say the dollar amount you listed I would never agree to. It wouldn't even cover my wages for the years in physical therapy yet the rest of my life.

If I end up with a structured settlement where I have to chase this guy I believe we can always sell the settlement and cash out. Is that possible?

Paul. We've been talking this case over a bit at the office. As I've tried to advise you during our several meetings, I do not believe we can adequately prove our case at trial. It's your word against Mr. Gagnons. Most times, that means we lose - as plaintiff. I don't think we want to invest the time and expense to get to that result. I'm happy to try to settle the case for you, but it will probably be a low amount. So, I want to advise you now should you wish to retain other counsel to try the case for you. Please advise how you wish to proceed. I know this is not good news, but I have learned a long time ago, some cases just are not proveable - not because you are not credible, but because juries demand more than we can give at trial.

I was able to get this email! I had written Meg to see the status of the records.

Again, here is what we discussed:

(1) the medical expert gave you a closed claim of benefits - we don't want to take that (i want you to have the ability to appeal any unfavorable decision/not be foreclosed from getting a closed period of benefits and then reapplying if need be) so that is why we went to the vocational expert testimony.
(2) when we went to the Vocational Expert, he gave jobs that conflicted with his testimony so I eliminated the jobs through his testimony (I just need to write a post-hearing memo for that and I am holding off and waiting for the medical records from Dr. Kujawa so i can address ongoing treatment in a memo to the judge as well)
(3) your psych records also reflect you can't do the jobs the vocational expert listed because they all require social contact which your records reflect that you really shouldn't do and the ALJ didn't develop the testimony there - kept saying we were running late - i will address that as well in the memo to the judge.

The records we addressed were requested previously by Meg and from my knowledge we are still waiting on the records (medical records often take quite a long time to come in).

I'll be happy to follow up with Meg/Janet tomorrow to find out the status of the records and if we may require you to get the updated records. While the Dr. Kohn records would show old treatment, it is Dr. Kujawa's records that are more useful (they show ongoing issues during the period in which you are claiming disability). Old records from 2002 will only show that you had problems in 2002 - updated records (from 6/28/11 onward) are key to your case at this point.

I'll be in the office tomorrow to speak further as well (312) 561-3030 if you have any questions.

Hi Janet,

I had the SSDI hearing last Thursday. It was a learning experience and I am not sure how it went. Much of it I didn't understand.

We were missing some of the reports. Particularly anything from Dr. Kujawa showing ongoing care for post traumatic Dystonia in the right forearm and some old reports from Dr. Kohn who was the Dr. who gave me over 100 shots in my neck, shoulders and back for severe muscle spasms after the car accident over a decade ago. Dr. Kohn from Kohn medical group in McHenry, I completely forgot about until the questions about muscle spasms came up in the hearing.

The judge left open the record for 30 days for us to add anything to the medical record.

Should I be the one to get the old reports from dr Kohn and the ongoing reports from dr Kujawa?

Also, Meredith Marcus, the attorney from Daley Disability law, asked me to send her Dr. Kujawa's contact information but her email (mmarcus@fdaley.com) keeps getting sent back to me with an error saying its undeliverable. I'm not sure how to get around the emails being sent back. What should I do?

Thanks again for everything,

Ok, it's signed and in the mail.

Hope that some yahoo in the govt. doesn't someday decide to go after everyone they think they might get a dollar out of and end up holding me responsible for the McGuires fees incurred while they fight it out.

I'm not in the business of warranting, insuring or protecting the McGuires from government. Especially for only 5 grand. For that kind of protection it could cost millions but I trust your judgement.

What and why do those questions have any relevance at all and why do they need to be part of this agreement?
Particularly the one about being eligible.

Also, I cannot warranty against what SSDI, Medicare or any other government institution wishes to do.

Is it possible to make this agreement blind to the McGuires or David Gagnon?

What I mean is can we make it so that the amount of money cannot be told to them in any way?

It would drive David's ego crazy if he thought it was a large sum and was banned from seeing how much it is.

Here is a copy of the first page.

It has check boxes and one of the check boxes says;

I am not eligible to receive SSI or SSDI.

Another says;

I am not receiving SSI or SSDI.

As you know, I have applied for SSDI and SSI

What and why do those questions have any relevance at all and why do they need to be part of this agreement? Particularly the one about being eligible.

Also, I cannot warranty against what SSDI, Medicare or any other government institution wishes to do.

Is it possible to make this agreement blind to the McGuires or David Gagnon?
What I mean is can we make it so that the amount of money cannot be told to them in any way?
It would drive David's ego crazy if he thought it was a large sum and was banned from seeing how much it is.

Hi Hans,
I received the papers to sign.
Not sure why it asks about SSDI eligibility.
Please explain.
Thanks,
Paul

Ok, I didn't know it was the McGuires who called him in.

Thanks

Hi Hans,

I just got a text saying that Mike Thomas received a letter mailed jan. 8th that stated he didn't need to show up for the dep because the case was settled.
